

Iron Mountain Ford Motor Company Plant
Kingsford, Dickinson County, Michigan
1920-1951 – POWER POINT

- Henry Ford's Beginnings in the Automobile Industry in Detroit and Dearborn, Michigan – Slides 3-5
- Henry Ford's Early Connection with Iron Mountain and Dickinson County, Michigan
May 28, 1907-October 21, 1920 – Slides 6-31
- Building the Iron Mountain Ford Motor Company Plant in Kingsford, Michigan –
June 1920-December 14, 1928 – Slides 32-61
- Model T Parts Production at the Iron Mountain Ford Motor Company Plant in Kingsford, Michigan – March 15, 1922-May 26, 1927 – Slides 62-186
- Station Wagon Production at the Iron Mountain Ford Motor Company Plant in Kingsford, Michigan – 1929-1942 – Slides 187-210
- WACO CG-4A Glider Production at the Iron Mountain Ford Motor Company Plant in Kingsford, Michigan – December 1942-Mid-August 1945 – Slides 211-294
- Post-War Station Wagon Production at the Iron Mountain Ford Motor Company
Plant in Kingsford, Michigan – 1946-1951 – Slides 295-366
- Charcoal Briquet Production at the Iron Mountain Ford Motor Company Plant in Kingsford, Michigan – Slides 367-373
- The Closing of the Iron Mountain Ford Motor Company Plant in Kingsford, Michigan in 1951 – Slides 374-385